

Adam Koleba

1797 Mallard Dr., Courtenay, BC, V9N 8L9

cell: (250)-218-5024

koleba98@gmail.com

Objective

Community Support Worker with Agency X Services

Highlights

- Two years' experience helping men with diverse abilities, one with Autism
- Genuine care for the well-being of persons receiving support
- Calm and patient in difficult situations
- Human Service Worker Certificate
- Non-violent crisis intervention training
- Community first-aid, class 4 driver's license, and immunizations

Relevant Skills

Responsible Care

- Committed to meeting the physical, emotional, and social needs of persons served
- Protects the rights and confidentiality of the individual and their family
- Careful to follow health and safety standards, and to be aware of unique medical or behavioral issues

Person-Centered Planning

- Develops activities that match the individual's goals, interests, and personality
- Flexible, creative, and resourceful in planning daily schedule
- Encourages the individual to make choices and to communicate their needs

Team Attitude

- Maintains a positive rapport with families, coworkers, and management
- Open to learning new things and asking for clarification and/or constructive feedback from persons served, colleagues, and superiors
- Carefully adheres to all required policies and procedures of care organizations

Related Employment

| | | |
|---------------------------------|---|-------------------------------|
| Community Support-Worker | Vancouver Island Community Connections Courtenay, BC | May 2019 to Present |
| Casual Assistant | Vanier Suites, L'Arche Comox Valley | Nov. 2017 to Mar. 2020 |

Education

| | | |
|--|---|--------------------|
| Human Services Certificate | North Island College, Courtenay | 2018 – 2020 |
| Master of Arts in Leadership & Ministry | Ambrose University College, Calgary, AB | 2006 – 2008 |

References

Available upon request
